- Build learning relationships through employing restorative practices
- Display a commitment to continued professional growth through self-reflection and further learning

Additional Responsibilities

- Deliver the Primary Music curricula in a dynamic way in the classroom, using initiative in bringing fresh and creative ideas to the curriculum
- Provide students with clear and fair assessment, including the provision of regular, meaningful feedback
- Preparedness to engage with the College's four pillared teaching and learning framework, including safe and supportive environment, explicit instruction, deep understanding and assessment for learning
- Prioritise safety in the classroom, including the preparation and communication of risk assessments with students
- A commitment to your own ongoing professional development and growth
- Active participation in co-curricular activities, as well as fulfilment of other duty of care responsibilities as directed by the College
- Show initiative in the integration of ICT into the learning program
- Uphold the Christian teachings of the College, encouraging students to serve others and explore Christ

Skills / Knowledge / Attributes

- Regularly practicing member of a Christian church
- Experience teaching the Primary Music curricula
- Proficiency in various music pedagogies

- Familiarity with music software in sequencing and notation
- Ability to lead vocal and instrumental ensembles and active involvement in co-curricular activities as directed by the College
- An active performer, outside of teaching practice, highly desirable
- Work ethic reflecting a commitment to excellence in teaching and a passion for student learning
- Proven ability to effectively engage students
- Demonstrated ability to effectively collaborate with other teachers, and work as part of a team
- Excellent organisation and planning skills; must possess the ability to handle multiple tasks and responsibilities within strict deadlines
