

Privacy Policy

William Clarke College is committed to following best practices in protecting your personal privacy. Our Privacy Policy can be viewed here.

We hope the following statement outlines clearly how we collect, use and protect the personal information which you provide to us.

Collecting your information

We will only collect information about you with your consent. When you browse our website, you do so anonymously. We do not collect information about you or your email address without your consent.

Information collected for Statistical Purposes

When you look at the web site of William Clarke College, we may record the following information for statistical purposes:

1. your ISP address;
2. your top-level domain name (for example .com, .gov, .au, .uk etc);
3. the pages you accessed, and documents downloaded;
4. the previous site you have visited;
5. the type of browser you are using.

Using your personal information

Unless required to do otherwise by law, we only collect your information in order to provide you with information and services which you request and to provide you with information about the College. We will only send further information to you in the future if it is explicitly requested. We will also give you the choice of receiving this information via email and/or post.

Disclosing your personal information

We will not disclose your personal information to any individual, company or organisation (except as required by law). We do not share email or address information with other businesses or organisations.

Access to your personal information

We believe you have a right to know about what information organisations have about you. If you wish to access a copy of the personal information about you held by William Clarke College, please call (02) 8882 2100 during business hours.

Google Analytics & 3rd Party Advertising Privacy Statement

This website uses Google Analytics to help analyse how users use the site.

The tool uses “cookies,” which are text files placed on your computer, to collect standard Internet log information and visitor behaviour information in an anonymous form.

The information generated by the cookie about your use of the website (including your IP address) is transmitted to Google. This information is then used to evaluate visitors’ use of this website and to compile statistical reports on website activity.

We will never (and will not allow any third party to) use the statistical analytics tool to track or to collect any Personally Identifiable Information of visitors to our site. Google will not associate your IP address with any other data held by Google. Neither we nor Google will link, or seek to link, an IP address with the identity of a computer user.

You may refuse the use of cookies by selecting the appropriate settings on your browser, however, please note that if you do this you may not be able to use the full functionality of this website.

By using this website, you consent to the processing of data about you by Google in the manner and for the purposes set out above <https://policies.google.com/technologies/partner-sites>

We also use 3rd party advertising partners Facebook, Instagram & Twitter. <https://www.facebook.com/privacy/explanation> These partners use cookies to personalise and refine targeting for advertising purposes. We do not share any personally identifiable data with these 3rd party partners.

Links

William Clarke College provides links to websites outside of the College. These linked sites are not under the control of the College, and we are not responsible for the conduct of companies or organisations linked to our website. Before disclosing your personal information on any other website, we advise you to examine the Terms and Conditions of those websites.
